8. CODE OF ETHICS FOR TEACHERS & ASSISTANTS OF THE IDT

We acknowledge the unique and sensitive nature of the student-teacher relationship and recognise that ethical behaviour is the foundation of all good practice and teacher training.

As teachers of Mysore Yoga Paris IDT, we agree to uphold the highest professional standards as set forth in the following Code of Ethics.

- We welcome all students with respect and friendliness and do not discriminate against or refuse anyone on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation, religion or national origin.
- We make responsible decisions to determine if and when to assist a student, and use our knowledge and skills only for their benefit.

- We provide rehabilitative and therapeutic alternatives only for those problems or issues that are within the reasonable boundaries of our competence.
We do not mis-represent our professional qualifications and we promote our services with accuracy and dignity.
- We understand that all forms of sexual behaviour with students is unethical and use only appropriate methods of touch when assisting students.
- We conduct our public and private affairs with honesty in financial, material, emotional and spiritual interactions.
- We respect the rights, dignity and privacy of all students, and treat all communications from students with professional confidence.

9. STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students have the right to:

- Pursue their training in an environment that is without harassment or discrimination.
- Be treated always with respect, dignity and fairness.
- Expect confidentiality in all personal matters.

It is the responsibility of the student to:

- Ensure that all current policies and procedures of the training and its venue are understood and adhered to.
- Seek clarification from the course administrator if a policy or procedure is not understood.
- Treat other students, teachers and assistants with kindness, fairness and respect.
